Recruit to the Global Vision

Relational Calling – relationship with God is cultivated

Universal Calling - All Christians are called to give their life by aligning their purposes with God’s purposes.

Individual Calling – God has a specific call for each individual. The leader’s passion, gifts and circumstances play an important role in understanding and responding to God’s calling. The leader’s individual calling is confirmed by others and becomes the context for living out God’s relational and universal calling.

What are some questions you have about CBMC?

What do we want to take out of this to form something that is beneficial to us, and to others that may join us in the future?
