Tim Philpot Bio June 2020

JUDGE: Tim Philpot, 69, retired in 2018 as a Family Court Judge in Lexington, Kentucky, serving from January 2004-January 2018.

LAW AND POLITICS: Tim was a trial lawyer for more than 26 years, concentrating on employment law, family law and civil rights cases. He was elected to the Kentucky State Senate in 1990, where he served two terms until 1998.

MINISTRY: From 1996 to 2003, Tim was President of CBMC International, a worldwide ministry presenting Christ to business and professional people. He has spoken in 66 nations, primarily to CBMC groups, Parliament groups, legal groups and business groups. He has recently returned to CBMC as an Ambassador, available to share his 42 years of experience with staff and volunteers. Tim also serves as Chairman of Fishhook International, a ministry focused on sharing God's love in India with the poor and needy.

AUTHOR: Tim has authored two books. "Ford's Wonderful World of Golf" is a memoir to his father published in 2013. "Judge Z: Irretrievably Broken" is a novel published in 2016 about family court, the death of marriage in America, the tragedy of divorce, and the profound mystery of God's love for us, His bride.

GOLF: He also serves as a volunteer assistant coach and chaplain for the University of Kentucky men's golf team, where he played and graduated in 1974. He is Chairman of Second Tee, Inc, a ministry which uses golf to share the Gospel with business and professional people.

FAMILY: Tim married Susan Davis, who grew up in Africa as the daughter of missionaries, in 1971. Tim and Susan have no children. They now live in Loxley, Alabama.

EDUCATION: Tim graduated from Tates Creek High School in Lexington, Ky, attended Asbury University for two years before graduating from the University of Kentucky in 1974 and the UK College of Law in 1977.
